Mr. Andrew Knaggs
Chief Executive Officer
Pacem Defense LLC
4700 Providence Road
Perry, FL 32347

Dear Mr. Knaggs:

The Subcommittee on Economic and Consumer Policy and the Subcommittee on Civil Rights and Civil Liberties are requesting documents and information about the safety of tear gas products manufactured by your company.

Tear gas weapons are commonly used in the United States by law enforcement as “riot control agents.” What is commonly referred to as “tear gas” are chemical compounds containing different combinations of chemical agents, such as those known as chloroacetophenone (CN), chlorobenzylidenemalononitrile (CS), chloropicrin (PS), bromobenzylcyanide (CA), and dibenzoxazepine (CR).¹ Studies have shown significant adverse health outcomes for individuals exposed to tear gas.² The safety of tear gas products sold in the United States appears to be largely left to the discretion of manufacturers.³

To assist the Subcommittees in their review of this matter, I request that you produce, by June 24, 2021, the following documents and information for the period of January 1, 2018, to the present, unless otherwise indicated:

1. For each year, a list of all entities within the United States to which you sold tear gas products, including a description of the products sold and their chemical agents and the revenue generated from sales to each entity;

² Knapik et al., o-Chlorobenzylidene Malononitrile (CS Riot Control Agent) Associated Acute Respiratory Illnesses in a U.S. Army Basic Combat Training Cohort, Military Medicine (July 1, 2014) (online at <https://academic.oup.com/milmed/article/179/7/793/4259353>).

³ Lack of Study and Oversight Raises Concerns About Tear Gas, Associated Press (Aug. 6, 2020) (online at <https://apnews.com/article/virus-outbreak-charlotte-race-and-ethnicity-ap-top-news-police-c814cc7b873ccaf60b95b10e96ecfc12#:~:text=It's%20unclear%20exactly%20who%20in,the%20use%20of%20tear%20gas>).

2. A description of safety testing performed for each of your tear gas products, and all documents relating to any such safety testing;
3. All policies and procedures regarding safety or testing of tear gas products for use on humans, including the maximum levels of any potentially hazardous ingredient that you allow in your products, and the actions your company takes if testing reveals that those maximum levels are exceeded in a product;
4. All internal documents, including communications, meeting minutes, and reports, referring or relating to negative health effects on humans of tear gas;
5. A description of any federal government regulatory entity in the United States that regulates the composition, testing, safety, or sale of your tear gas products, including a description of any reporting requirements by your company to the regulating entity;
6. All documents relating to any reports or complaints of health impacts from the use of your tear gas products;
7. All communications with the federal government or state governments regarding or relating to the safety of tear gas products sold by your company;
8. A list of any administrative or legal actions against your company relating to harm to any individual and relating to the use or manufacture of your tear gas products, including claims by members of the public, members of the community surrounding manufacturing facilities, and workers in manufacturing facilities; and
9. All documents relating to any workplace exposure to tear gas products requiring medical attention, anonymized to protect employee privacy.

9. When you produce documents, you should identify the paragraph(s) or request(s) in the Committee's letter to which the documents respond.

If a date or other descriptive detail set forth in this request referring to a document is inaccurate, but the actual date or other descriptive detail is known to you or is otherwise apparent from the context of the request, produce all documents that would be responsive as if the date or other descriptive detail were correct.

18. This request is continuing in nature and applies to any newly-discovered information. Any record, document, compilation of data, or information not produced because it has not been located or discovered by the return date shall be produced immediately upon subsequent location or discovery.
